

LET CONTRACTS FOR REPAIR OF 2 MONUMENTS

Two major monuments of the battlefield of Gettysburg, the Pennsylvania monument and the Eternal Light Peace Memorial, will soon undergo greatly needed repairs following the approval of two contracts for the work by the National Park Service, Representative James S. Lind announced today.

The larger of the contracts, totaling $53,907, has been awarded to the John Stapp Corporation, of Harrisburg. The smaller, amounting to $7,200, was awarded to F. Cantano and Sons, Philadelphia. Both firms will do some work on both monuments.

The principal item of work at the Peace Memorial, built in 1938, will be the replacement of the Alabama limestone of the structure with granite. The limestone has deteriorated badly since it was put in place 13 years ago. The substitution of granite is in accordance with the original plans which could not be followed because of the inadequacy of available funds at the time the memorial was erected.

At the Pennsylvania monument the work will consist principally of making a variety of repairs and refinishing certain portions of the terrace. This monument was erected on the battlefield by the state of Pennsylvania in 1910. It cost $245,000.

Acheson Says Chiang Kai-Shek Welcomed Yalta Pact With Reds

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson contended today there was no connection between the Far Eastern concessions made to Russia at Yalta and the defeat of the Chinese Nationalists by the Communists.

Acheson said that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, leader of the Nationalists, welcomed the agreements, which gave Russia entry into Manchuria through concessions at Port Arthur and Dairen.

It was Acheson's sixth day of testimony at hearings by the Senate armed services and foreign relations committees on the dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), a strong administration supporter, raised the question of whether the Yalta agreements weakened Chiang's forces. He said his purpose was to dispel any notion that the concessions to Russia "made it possible for the Chinese Communists to have a victory in China."

McMahon had Acheson read the

TWO LOCAL MEN GIVE TALKS AT GROUP BANQUET

Judge W. C. Sheely and District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, of Gettysburg, and Attorney Carl A. Cassone, Allentown, were among the speakers Wednesday evening at the second annual banquet of the Adams County Fraternal and Social Organizations held at the Eagles home in Littlestown.

Attorney Cassone, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Federation of Fraternal and Social Organizations, told the group that "club activities are as old as the human race. All through history men have associated themselves together for all types of activities. And these organizations have always had a dual purpose, first to carry out some program in which the members were interested and secondly to provide social activities and recreation for the members."

4,500 Clubs In State

"Pennsylvania leads all states in the number of clubs, with 4,500 licensed in the state. Perhaps it is because many of the early settlers were Germans, who seem to be natural organizers, that the state is so club-minded."

"Clubs are a bulwark against communism or any other ism because in clubs free men can get together among themselves and discuss subjects in a free and democratic way. And that carries over into everyday life and political life."

Cassone discussed the history of liquor control laws in Pennsylvania and charged that commercial interests are attempting to dominate liquor legislation to the detriment of the clubs. He urged the clubs to unite to protect their interest in legislation.

Noting the number of women present at the banquet Cassone praised the auxiliaries of the various organizations and said, "Participation by women in the clubs is an asset to the organizations, giving them strength and stability."

Judge Sheely Speaks

Judge Sheely told the group that he was "happy to see an organization of this sort, because it is an example of people uniting to work together in a common interest and learning that in unity there is strength."

2 Mountain Tops Overlooking Red Strongholds Of Chorwon, Kumhwa Are Seized By Allies

Tokyo, June 7 (AP)—Allied troops today straddle the two most important mountains guarding the approaches to Chorwon and Kumhwa, Red strongholds in North Korea.

Sweating United Nations infantrymen clambered to the top of 2,700-foot (Mount Kodae, four miles) south of Chorwon.

(The name and location of the mountain were deleted by the censor. But neither this story nor previous censored field dispatches left any doubt as to the identity of the mountain.)

Can Shell Chorwon
From this height the Allies dominate the mountain road and valley corridor up which other troops were pushing. They are in position to pump artillery fire into battered Chorwon, 17 miles north of the 38th Parallel.

Further to the east mud-caked United Nations troops Wednesday seized 3,100 foot Kwangdok mountain, southwest of Kumhwa, a delayed front line dispatch said. The mountain looks up another valley route and towers over hills to the north.

Allies beat off a series of battalion-sized counterattacks early Thursday morning on the road to Kumhwa, then they clawed their way 2,000 yards closer to the southeastern corner of the Reds' prized "iron triangle."

Tanks Haul Ammo
Manu units burned up their normal supply of ammunition early in the attack. Tanks resupplied them, running a gauntlet of Chinese artillery and mortar fire.

To the east, Allied troops were driven from one prominent ridge-line by Red counterattacks at noon. Elsewhere in the mountainous east the Allied advance ground to a halt in the face of stubborn North Koreans.

"They've suffered tremendous losses," a U.N. officer said. "The bodies must be stacked on each other."

The U.N. advance in the west was paced by infantrymen storming up Mount Kodae, four miles southwest of Chorwon. They pushed the Chinese back to a point 40 miles from the deepest penetration of their abortive spring offensives.

Reds Digging In

Atop the 2,700-foot hill, United Nations forces dominate entrance-ways to the Chorwon-Kumhwa-Yonggang triangle. On their left is the Seoul-Chorwon highway. On their right is the opening of Pyonggang valley, which splits the triangle.

Chorwon itself lies in front. Only one low hill stands between the Allies and the city.

But front dispatches said the Reds have quit retreating. They've dug in to fight.

The U. S. Eighth Army communique Thursday night reported the smallest gains of its counter-offensive. Distances were given for only two advances.

Troops capturing Kodae, and their supporting forces, gained 1,000 to 2,000 yards, through artillery and mortar fire. Flanking units spreading west across the Imjin river near Yonchon ran into bitter fights.

U.N. forces on the eastern flank, spearheading toward the center of the iron triangle, advanced 2,000 yards. Censorship obscured their position.

In connection with a charge of blasphemy brought against Hartlaub by his wife before Justice Snyder, the justice reserved decision on the case until Monday.

The lone safety off Gorman was secured by Don Sterner. After four scoreless innings, the garagemen pounded over five runs in the fifth and added two more in the sixth to clinch the contest. Gorman rapped a homerun for the winners. The Stanton Legion nosed out the VFW 9-3 in the nightcap. The Legion took a 5-0 lead in the first four innings and then fell behind 8-5 when the vets collected eight tallies in the fifth. However, the Legion came right back with four runs in their half. The defeat was the third straight one-run affair suffered by the losers.

CASTOFFS PACE SIZZLING SOX IN MOUND DUTY

By JACK HEND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Lou Kretlow, Harry Dorish, Randy Gumpert and Kenny Holcombe—Chicago's waiver waifs—are making faces red all around the American league.

Kretlow, who is he? That probably was the man-in-the-street reaction to yesterday's story on the blazing White Sox. Still a club—the Detroit Tigers—once thought enough of Lou to pay him a $35,000 bonus to sign off the Enid (Okla.) Army Air Force team.

Kretlow's 1950 record of 0-2 hardly stamped him as a man who would boost the White Sox' league lead to 4½ games. But Manager Paul Richards seems to have a way with pitchers.

After yesterday's neat four-hitter against Washington for a 4-2 win, both the Tigers and Browns would be glad to welcome him back.

Dorish, efficient reliever in nine games when Chicago pitchers needed help, made the rounds before he hit Comiskey Park. He's been bouncing up and down from minors to majors with Boston, St. Louis and Chicago since 1947.

Gumpert Unbeaten
Then there's Gumpert—unbeaten at 4-0. The Athletics had him first—way back in 1936-37. Then they let him get away to the Yankee chain.

New York found Randy useful in 1946 and 1947. But in July, 1948, off he went to the White Sox—at the waiver price.

Holcombe didn't stick long enough for waivers with most of the clubs. But at various times, between trips to the minors, he belonged to the Yankees, Cincinnati and White Sox.

With a staggering 19-out-of-21 pace, the Sox are gradually pulling away from the pack while the Yanks and Red Sox fizzle.

A fumble by usually dependable Phil Rizzuto cost the Yankees a 5-4 loss to the lowly St. Louis Browns.

Detroit lowered the boom on Boston, 6-4, for hit Red Sox's fifth straight loss.

Alex Kellner handed Cleveland its second straight loss after nine straight wins, with a seven-hitter as Philadelphia ripped into Bob Chakales for a 4-3 margin.

Dodgers Widen Gap
Brooklyn opened up another length on the field in the National, edging St. Louis, 3-2, in a game finished under protest by Manager Marty Marion of the Cards.

The defeat left the Cards 5½ games back of the Dodgers.

Marion protested because Chuck Dressen, Brook manager, sat in a box seat behind the Dodger bench after he was chased for arguing with Umpire Art Gore.

Cincinnati felled the New York Giants by scoring three in the ninth to win, 5-4.

Warren Spahn snapped Boston's five-game losing streak with a five-hitter against Pittsburgh, 5-2. Ralph Kiner hit his 13th homer for the Pirates.

The Phillies cut loose on Bob Schultz, Cal McLish and Johnny Schmitz with 18 hits to smother Chicago, 9-1. Robin Roberts allowed only three hits—all to Catcher Smoky Burgess.

IDAVILLE WINS AGAIN
Idaville blanked the Masland company team of Carlisle 10-0 Wednesday evening in a Cumberland County league game on the Idaville diamond. Bucky Walters gave the losers but three hits.

"Skip" Fisel stole home in the last of the seventh inning with two out to give the Gettysburg Eagles a 2-1 victory over Taneytown in a Mason-Dixon Junior Baseball league game Wednesday evening on the Recreation field. The game was held to seven innings inasmuch as Taneytown was an hour late in reporting for the game.

Dick Miller fanned nine and gave the visitors three hits. Taneytown's lone run came in the first inning when Baumgardner scored on a hit by Alexander which was good for three bases on an outfield miscue.

A triple by George Bender to right and an infield out by Miller gave the Eagles a run in the second. Fisel walked in the seventh, stole second and went to third on a balk after which he made his steal of home.

The Hanover Kiwanis and Legion teams, who meet Saturday, each won their second successive games by disposing of Littlestown and New Windsor, respectively.

MEYER OUSTER SQUELCHED AT BOARD MEETING

Pittsburgh, June 7 (AP)—The periodical rumor that the Pittsburgh Pirates are ready to fire Manager Billy Meyer has been tucked away again—this time by General Manager Branch Riskey.

The latest rumor was squelched following a meeting of the board of directors yesterday. Although there had been reports Meyer's status would be the big item on the agenda, Riskey declared:

"Meyer's name wasn't even mentioned."

At the news conference after the session Riskey declared:

"I'm not a manager changer. I'm a salvager. But that doesn't say other people aren't entitled to their opinion. Mr. Meyer, in my estimation, is a sound technician and a sound manager of handling the game."

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

HUMILITY IN NATURE

In the silence of nature there is a forgetfulness of selfish pride and boastfulness, of so many of the forces in human life that self-enslave us and prevent our honest expression and free worship of the finer elements of life.

In the forest, or alone by the ocean along some rocky shore, we are made especially humble and reverential. The petty little things fade so quietly from the mind, and we look out from where we are, as though in God's garden—as we actually are, when we are out as a visitant in uncoiled nature.

There is a fragrance about the earth, a clearness to the call of birds, a beauty to the sky and its overhanging woven clouds, and a majesty to the heavens at night that transport your mind to a new world. Here among all the natural elements of nature truly should be found the perfect playground of man, and as one of God's guests.

How can anyone stand before the great falls at Niagara, or look upon that marvelous spectacle of the Grand Canyon of Arizona without feeling very humble? Every time I have visited these places that is how I have felt, and the same feeling has come over me when at that great rock-bound point at Peggy's Cove in Nova Scotia. When I first stood beside one of those great sequoia trees in California, I never felt my littleness as then. How gigantically noble each one seemed! I am told that these trees were standing out there when Christ was born! One of the most famous ones is called "General Grant."

Walking through any forest, well away from habitations, you feel a detachment from the worries and disturbances encountered when in the city or among the crowds faced each day. An awareness comes over one of the beauty and importance of life, and of the significance of the tiniest flower, shrub or tree, or even of the pebbles which we stop to examine as we roam about some watered shore. And how silent are the nights—how overflowing with suggested thought. How freed this mind of ours as we return to our home from Nature's paradise!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Be A 'Missed' Person."

WAR IS A FAILURE

Twere better to toss up a coin
Or trust to the roll of the dice,
Than in war and its horrors to join
With death always victory's price.

For ages the statesmen have said:
"For honor men willingly die."
But when we have counted the dead
There's always the questioning:
"Why?"

The weak must submit to the strong,
But the hatreds that follow don't cease.

And this men have known all along:
Wars never have ended in peace.

"Inherent with failure is war.
The victor, the loser must be,"
Said MacArthur, "There should be no more."

And no man knows better than he.

MAY INSTALL N. O. BLINKER

Inasmuch as the New Oxford Fire company uses the intersection of Lincoln Way west and Bolton street during calls, the possibility of placing a blinker there to operate in conjunction with the siren—automatically cutting off after apparatus passes the zone—was discussed at a session of the New Oxford town council Tuesday night in the borough hall.

The property committee of council reported having difficulty in obtaining police uniforms, as there is a stock shortage and it will require several months to fill the order. The solons approved, however, the purchase of a police siren. The water committee reported the standpipe has been repainted as per contract.

Miss Eleanor M. Miller, borough treasurer, who plans to change her address, submitted her resignation and it was accepted. The treasurer's report follows: Balance on May 1, $748.81; receipts—water rents, $776.40, April fines $20; Manufacturer Light and Heat company, $216.90; permits, 50 cents; total cash and receipts, $1,796.61. Disbursements, $1,109.45. Cash on hand, $686.16. Salaries and accounts were approved for payment.

President M. R. Freed presided at the session, attended by councilmen R. W. Wolfe, Paul Harbaugh, Charles Cook and Harry Enlet; and Lawrence C. Bevenour, borough manager. Edward Myers appeared before council in the interest of police pensions.

80 Burned To Death In Crash

Rio de Janeiro, June 7 (AP)—A jammed commuter train hit a stalled gasoline truck near here today and a spokesman for the railroad said at least 80 persons—and perhaps as many as 100—burned to death in flaming gasoline. Fifty other persons were hurt.

The spokesman for the line—the government's Railway Central do Brasil—said the blazing gas sprayed the first passenger car as the engine hit the truck. Then the engine, trying frantically to halt his train, stopped so that the last car was in the middle of the burning wreckage of the truck. All the deaths occurred in the first and last cars.

The train was enroute from Quel-mados to Rio. It hit the truck, carrying 4,500 gallons of gasoline, near the town of Nova Iguaçu at about 4:25 a.m.

Coolerator

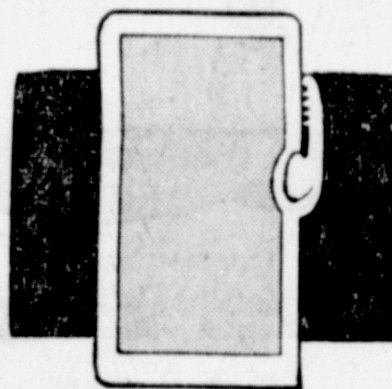

THE SPACE-THRIFTY REFRIGERATOR
THAT'S MODERN AS TOMORROW

HOLDS MORE FOOD
TAKES LESS SPACE
ALL SAFE COLD
TOP TO BASE AND FRONT TO BACK

It's the new Coolerator Queen for '50—the only refrigerator that's bigger on the inside than it looks on the outside. Only 28 inches wide—yet gives you 92½ cu. ft. of the most usable capacity you've ever seen. See the amazing new Coolerator Queen at our store today.

NEW KIND OF REFRIGERATOR

The sketch at the left shows you why you get more in and out of a Coolerator. The motor has been taken out of the cabinet, flattened out, and placed, up out of the way, on the back of the refrigerator to free the whole interior for storage. Only Coolerator has the Zerolator on the back with the entire interior safely refrigerated top to base and front to back.

7 Nazi War Criminals Hanged For Mass Murder Of Thousands

Landsberg, Germany, June 7 (AP)—Seven Nazi war criminals, convicted of the mass murder of millions, were hanged by the United States Army here early today.

They were the last to die of 275 persons condemned by the U.S. War Crimes tribunals of 1946-47. The seven went to the gallows after four years of legal maneuvering. Their last mercy appeal was denied by the U.S. Supreme court yesterday.

The seven dropped through the trap in the basement of bleak Landsberg prison where their fuhrer, Adolf Hitler, had written "Mein Kampf." It was just seven years and a day since the Allies swarmed ashore in France on D-Day to break the back of Nazi power.

Three of those hanged were SS (Elite Guard) generals and two were colonels condemned for the wanton slaughter of innocent Jews, gypsies and Russians.

Two other SS men died because, as concentration camp bosses, they had wreaked horror among their defenseless charges.

Each of the men used his last

90 seconds for a speech from the scaffold. A source within the closely guarded prison said the substance of their words was "beware of the people who say they are friends of Germany." He said he had no doubt this referred to the United States.

None of the seven faltered when called to begin the march to the gallows. All of them had dropped off to sleep earlier believing they would win a last-minute reprieve.

The first to die—at midnight—was SS Col. Paul Blobel, who forsook an architect's drafting board to lead extermination squads in occupied Russia. The massacre of 60,000 persons at Kiev is on his record.

Then, in alphabetical order, came: SS Col. Werner Braune, lawyer turned officer, whose troops wiped out thousands of civilians at Simferopol in the Russian Crimea.

SS Gen. Erich Naumann, whose extermination force wiped out 3,539 Jews and gypsies on the eastern front in a little more than three weeks.

SS Gen. Otto Ohlendorf, another lawyer, who directed the extermination of more than 90,000 persons in French Guiana became a prison colony in 1852. Sentences to the notorious colony were abolished by French law in 1938. The site of the former prison colony today is profitably occupied by DP's recruited by the International Refugee Organization.

MISS FAMOUS "GOLD PIANO" IN WHITE HOUSE

By ED CREAGH

Washington, June 7 (AP)—They say the White House will be more magnificent than ever when its rebuilding is completed next year. But don't you believe it. The executive mansion won't have Teddy Roosevelt's "gold piano"—and until you've seen that, you don't know what magnificence is.

It's a $35,000 concert grand, covered with gold leaf. Its massive legs blossom into golden American eagles. The coats of arms of the 13 original states encircle the body. And the inside of the vast cover turns out to be an original painting by the eminent Thomas Wilmer Dewing.

On Public Display

You can see this faded, but still awe-inspiring instrument for yourself from now until the end of July. The Smithsonian Institution is putting it on special exhibition along with a centennial showing of the remains of Dewing (1851-1938).

And it's partly your piano, too. Steinway & Sons presented it to the government—in, the people—in 1903, and it graced the east room of the White House until 1938, when it was "retired" to the Smithsonian. Harry Truman, the only known piano-playing President in our history, entered the White House seven years too late to play it.

Herbert W. Krieger, the Smithsonian's curator of musical instruments, is convinced the President missed something, too.

"Magnificent Tone"

"It's a wonderful instrument," he said in an interview. "Magnificent tone. When it left the White House, the makers replaced it with another concert grand, done more conservatively in ivory. But personally, I think we've got the better instrument."

Krieger has a basis for judging. He has 375 pianos, harpsichords and other keyboard instruments tucked away in one part or another of the mammoth museum. There's even the scale model grand piano that "Gen." Tom Thumb, the celebrated midget, played in 1851.

The "gold piano" is in a class by itself, though. It fitted in admirably with the east room's decor during the Theodore Roosevelt administration—the stucco ceilings, crystal chandeliers and window draperies of heavy yellow silk damask.

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—Expenses General Assembly. Pay scales of allotted state legislators would be senators and legislators, however, increased from $2,400 a biennium to would remain at $3,000 for each two $3,600 under a new bill before the years.

ST. ALOYSIUS
GRADUATES 7

Seven students were graduated from St. Aloysius Parochial school at the mass and exercises held at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning in the church. A procession including the graduates took place. The members of the class occupied the front pews of the church. The other pupils of the school attended the mass in a body. The children sang "O Most Holy One" and "I Need Thee Precious Jesus" and "Sacred Heart of Jesus". The graduates received Holy Communion in a body.

Following the mass the pastor, the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan, presented high school entrance certificates to the following who had completed the course prescribed by the Diocese of Harrisburg: Edward Adams, Frederick Busby, Barbara Beck, Mary Ellen Collins, Barbara Redding, Donna Simpson and Esther Yingling. The American Legion citizenship award presented by Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321 was given to Frederick Busby. The local Legion Auxiliary medal was awarded to Donna Simpson. The pastor then spoke briefly congratulating the graduates.

Certificates for perfect attendance during the 1950-51 term were presented to the following pupils of the school: Lawrence Ernst, Pius Paulsen, Helen Beck, Theresa Krichen, Jessemine Rang and Maxine Reinhardt. The graduation devotions closed with the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The teachers of the parochial school are Sister Mary Rosari, Sister Margaret Mary, Sister Mary Teresita, and Sister Mary Anita.

S. S. Cass Meets

Mrs. Ivan Riley, near town, was hostess to the Friendship Circle Sunday school class of St. Paul's Lutheran church, at the quarterly meeting held on Tuesday evening. The meeting opened with the group singing the class song, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." The scripture was read by Mrs. Allen Epley. Prayer was offered by the class teacher, Mrs. Lloyd Humbert. Mrs. Samuel Smith gave a resume of the different translations of the Bible. Mrs. Allen Epley, president, presided during the business session. The assistant secretary, Mrs. Della Collins, presented her report. The guess package was contributed by Mrs. Epley and was received by Mrs. Humbert. At the close of the business a hat and bonnet sale was held with Mrs. David S. Kammerer acting as sales lady. A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served to the group by the hostess. The next meeting of the class will be held Tuesday, September 4, at the home of Mrs. Allen Epley, near town.

Plan For Carnival

Plans were furthered for the third annual Kingsdale Fire company carnival at the regular meeting of the company Monday evening in the engine house. The general committee for the carnival to be held July 30 through August 4, is composed of Ernest Baumgardner, Lloyd Bowers and Harry Hess. The special prizes to be given away during the week have been announced as follows: Monday evening, a breakfast set; Tuesday evening, a square top electric wash machine; Wednesday evening, an electric range; Thursday evening, an electric refrigerator; Friday evening, an electric hot water heater, and Saturday evening, a tractor with hydraulic lift. The entertainment committee consisting of Edgar A. Wolfe, Clyde W. Crouse, Miss Esther Crouse and Alvin G. Groft, announced that the Thursday evening entertainment will feature a bathing beauty contest, as was held in previous years; Friday evening the Littlestown Junior-Senior high school band will entertain.

The Monday meeting was in charge of the president, Walter P. Crouse. The secretary's report was presented by Edgar A. Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe also announced the following parade engagements of the company: Thursday, June 14, at Taneytown; Saturday, June 16, at Irish town; Wednesday, July 4, at Get-

Long Police Chase
Was All A Mistake

Randallstown, Md., June 7 (AP)—State police chased a car around the mountains and into Pennsylvania Tuesday, only to find it was a case of mistaken identity.

A resident of Taneytown, Md., started it. He thought the man and woman in the car corresponded to the descriptions of Max Kalish and Dorothy Shiflett, fugitives from a mail fraud warrant in California.

A call to the state police barracks here sent troopers in pursuit, through Emmitsburg and across the line to near Waynesboro, Pa. Pennsylvania state police joined the hunt. The couple in the car established that they were not the wanted pair.

Postal inspectors in Baltimore said Kalish and the Shiflett woman are accused of defrauding stamp dealers and collectors all over the country. They sometimes operate out of Baltimore.

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—The state game commission would be authorized to issue special permits to disabled veterans to hunt from automobiles under a bill before the Senate today. The measure went to the upper chamber for action after winning unanimous approval in the House yesterday.

St. Louis, June 7 (AP)—Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall lashed out Wednesday at critics of the present situation in Korea, saying there were those who cried stalemate about Greece and the Berlin airlift.

But, the five-star general declared, we have a remarkable record — "a record x x met in turn by courageous decision and so far with the avoidance of a general war."

The Formosa Story

This is the second of two articles on the island of Formosa, its position in world affairs, and how its military future may help oust the commies from the Chinese mainland.

(Formosa is an island of question marks in the sea of American strategy. To find out some of the answers, the Associated Press sent veteran Correspondents Frank H. King and Fred Hampson to Formosa to collaborate with Spencer Moosa, the resident AP correspondent, in a painstaking survey. In their first article King and Moosa described the hopes of Chiang Kai-shek's forces to make the island a strong base for a comeback on China's mainland. Today King and Hampson weigh the military prospects and the part of the United States is playing in them.)

By FRANK H. KING and FRED HAMPSON
Taipei, Formosa, (AP)—Sooner or later waves of khaki-clad Nationalist soldiers intend to assault the Communist-held mainland of China, but Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is not prepared to strike yet.

Chiang and his Nationalists—twenty number perhaps a half million—are stronger now than at any time since they fled for their lives in an Oriental Dunkerque of junks and sampans to this island refuge.

It was December, 1949, that Chiang's forces fled before the Communist legions. Then the future of Chiang's China seemed hopeless. There was danger of complete economic and military collapse, and Formosa seemed ripe for the Reds to take at will. Americans were warned to leave. Even Chiang's firmest friends thought he was finished.

Chiang Is Reluctant

But international events changed the outlook. The war in Korea brought American neutralization of Formosa. This meant guarding it from invasion or from conducting mainland sorties. Today the Nationalists are anxious to strike back to China proper—the sooner the better. But Chiang admits he is not able to strike right now.

"Six months after we have supplies and equipment, a large-scale counteroffensive can be launched," Chiang told the Associated Press recently.

That was the first time he had made an approximate time estimate for a counterblow against the Reds. His implication was that his troops are ready—except for the matter of equipment.

Details of Chiang's armed strength have become top secret again. Estimates called conservative here say there are at least 400,000 Nationalist soldiers with weapons enough for a defensive force but not for an invasion of the mainland. It could become an invasion force with more heavy and light artillery, more transport, more shoes and clothing, standardized small arms and the necessary reserves of beans, bullets and bombs.

General Praises Chinese

Maj. Gen. William C. Chase, head of the newly-arrived American military mission to Formosa, after a quick look at Chiang's forces, told the Associated Press:

"Potentially they are a formidable fighting force. I am much encouraged—more so than I expected to be. Properly equipped, trained and employed—also properly led—they will be highly effective."

But Gen. Chase, veteran of Pacific warfare, was not speaking with reference to Chiang's proposed attack on the China mainland. The Chase mission is here solely to maintain Formosa as a neutralized island in accord with announced American policy. His mission is a link in the three-part U. S. effort—military, economic and diplomatic—on Formosa.

This is Chase's first job in China. The experiences of Joseph Stilwell, George C. Marshall and other American generals frustrated in China give Chase an idea of what he is up against.

If congressional hearings in Washington or other factors create the impression that Chiang now is ready to attack and relieve pressure in Korea, that impression is not correct.

To Get More Aid

At the Washington hearings on General MacArthur's dismissal, Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told of the decision to resume U. S. military aid to Chiang's forces, and disclosed that first deliveries of equipment involving $10,000,000 had been made by November. He said the aid program recommended thus far totaled $300,000,000 but he added he did not know how much had been delivered up to this time. Asked if this aid was for defensive purposes, Bradley said he believed so, but added: "I don't know that you can distinguish entirely between defensive and offensive."

However, even after he got all the supplies he needed, by Chiang's own estimate he still would need another six months to start rolling.

Need More Training

Chiang's army, though well trained and in many cases well led, still would need amphibious training and more amphibious craft to attempt an invasion. His medium-sized air force, now largely inoperable for lack of parts, would have to go into the air in full force to give cover. His navy would be

School Inspector Tells Of Presents

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—John O. Judge, chief of the state GI school inspectors, has testified he and his family "received gifts from operators of GI schools during the past three years at Christmas time."

Judge also testified that operators of GI schools made contributions of "about $4,000" to Mrs. Judge to a church organ fund.

Judge gave the testimony at a hearing before a special committee of the U. S. House of Representatives investigating operation of GI schools in Pennsylvania. The committee is headed by Rep. Olin D. Teague (D-Texas).

a church organ fund.

"I can think of a lamp, a chair, a picture, a portable radio, ties, scarfs, pencil sets and a fifth of liquor which were given to us during the holidays by operators," Judge told the committee.

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—Legislation empowering the Pennsylvania Turnpike commission to construct a bridge to carry the eastern turnpike extension over the Delaware river reached Gov. John S. Fine Wednesday.

The measure was sent to the governor for action after winning final House passage on Tuesday.

The bill clears the way for construction of a span to connect the eastern superhighway extension with the state of New Jersey.

PSYCHIATRIST SAYS BRITISH TREAT WOMEN LIKE SLAVES

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Dr. Alfred Torrie, wartime director of British army psychiatrists, makes the startling pronouncement that Britons are immature because they treat their women as slaves.

"We are still a patriarchal nation, a male-dominated society," declares Dr. Torrie. "Woman is just the slave, the helot, the chattel, and Britain won't grow up until women have more influence."

It strikes us that the good doctor performs a very daring feat in thus nailing his colors to the mast. One suspects that he may get an argument from some of England's "slave" women. However, since he has introduced the subject your columnist ventures to make a few cautious observations.

Dominance Of Male

I've spent many years in England. When I first arrived there some 35 years ago one of the things which impressed me was the dominance of the male in the family circle. He was the acknowledged boss, and there never was any argument about it—well, hardly ever.

The whole life of the family revolved about father. He decided this, that and everything. Even the weekend roast was selected and prepared to suit his taste. He was pretty much lord of all he surveyed.

Needed Kick In Pants

I'll give you a concrete example of the British man's dominance in those days. The divorce laws were very sticky, and while a husband could divorce his wife for infidelity, she couldn't divorce him on those sole grounds. The reason was somewhat astonishing to a Vermont-bred Yankee.

The law held that a husband had a right to sow wild oats, and even to have a mistress if he wanted one. But the privilege of cultivating such wild oats wasn't extended to the lady of the house. Apropos of this I recall a conversation long ago with a big-time London business man. Said he:

"I have a lucrative business, a lovely home, a charming wife and three fine children. And I have my mistress. What more can a man want?"

Well, that question sort of stumped me. I couldn't think of anything more he needed except maybe a kick in the trousers.

However, since those days there has been a great change in England, and one evidence is in the reform of the divorce laws to give both sexes the same fundamental rights. British women these days have pretty much the same rights as men in most walks of life, even to holding public office. Perhaps they don't take as much advantage of these new-found privileges as, say the women in America, but the rights are there.

Home life in Britain got a tremendous shaking up during the last world war. There was very little domestic help available. The result was that the housewife not only had to do all her own work but had to spend long hours standing in line to buy necessities.

The men—to give the lady due credit—recognized that this was tough on the women folk and jumped in to help with household duties. These days the mighty male even takes a hand at washing dishes—that is, a lot of men do.

Still, while there have been these striking changes, it's true that man continues to rule the roost, so to speak—or thinks he does. Anyway, he is accorded many of those deft courtesies which please his ego without hurting the womenfolk.

The term slavery is relative—but present day English women can mark great gains in "freedom" during recent years.

ASKS DEATH FOR DOPE PEDDLERS

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—Anyone convicted of peddling narcotics to children in Pennsylvania would be subject to the death penalty under a bill before the House Wednesday.

Rep. Edward Dunn (R-Northumberland) submitted the measure yesterday in an effort to halt what he termed the growing "drug menace" in the Keystone state.

"Peddling drugs to children is as bad as murdering them outright," Dunn declared.

His bill would make the death penalty mandatory for anyone convicted of selling or giving narcotics to persons under 21.

Meanwhile, in a similar move, a bill sharply increasing penalties for illegal sale of narcotics in Pennsylvania reached the House floor for voting action.

The bill puts the penalty on a graduated basis according to the number of offenses. The penalty for a first offense would be up to a three-year prison term or a $2,000 fine and a 7½ to 15-year term for a third offense with a $6,000 fine.

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—A bill banning the use of B-B guns by children under 16 in Pennsylvania gained new life in the House today. The measure, once killed by the lower chamber, was revived again on Tuesday by a 91-65 vote. It was immediately placed on the postponed calendar, an action which holds up indefinitely a final vote on the bill.

BRIEF NOTES ON FLY CONTROL

House flies are perhaps the most dangerous insect enemy of humanity. We tolerate them with shameful carelessness and apathy. We continue to pay an intolerable annual bill in health, medical costs, and even in life for our neglect and lethargy. Yet, if neighbors would join hands, communities could solve this acute problem in a few weeks.

Female flies lay their eggs only in horse manure, decaying or fermenting vegetable matter like garbage, and in a few cases in other animal excrement and wet, rotting straw. Prevention measures should be directed against all breeding materials. Eight important steps are suggested:

1. Keep all livestock manure, particularly horse manure, in tightly covered pits or haul it daily to distant fields in summer.
2. Fit doors and windows of dwellings and rooms where foods are stored with carefully installed screens.
3. Keep garbage in tightly closed containers. This same precaution reduces rat dangers, too.
4. Clean and disinfect stables and poultry houses frequently from late May until cold weather comes.
5. Strew powdered borax in outdoor toilets and other places where flies breed or congregate.
6. Inspect sewer and drain connections every few weeks.
7. Do not patronize grocery stores where foods are left exposed to flies.
8. Induce neighbors to join in these prevention measures as well as in direct combat practices later suggested.

In planning active war on house flies, first and lasting emphasis is placed on communitywide action, especially in urban centers. The following measures are advised:

Make liberal use of fly traps in outdoor places where the pests congregate, such as porches. There are several good traps on the market. They should be kept freshly baited all summer.

Sticky fly paper is an inexpensive weapon to employ outdoors as well as indoors. It is easily made at home by heating two pounds of rosin (crushed) in one pint of castor oil until the rosin melts and the mixture resembles dark molasses. Spread the warm mixture on heavy paper with a small paint brush.

If children and pets are not endangered, an effective poison is prepared by mixing three teaspoonsful of formalin in one pint of sweet milk or an equivalent quantity of water, sweetened with brown sugar.

DDT has proved an excellent aid in the battle against flies. And while in many cases flies have developed an immunity against this poison, it still serves quite effectively. The idea is to coat all surfaces where flies congregate or travel, especially porch walls and ceilings, door jams, screens and similar surfaces. A five percent solution in oil, such as is sold by drug stores ready to use, or a wettable powder spray is recommended. The surface should be uniformly coated but not so heavy that beads of the insecticide form.

Farmers who cannot haul livestock manure out daily in summer and who lack proper pit storing facilities may render heaps of accumulating manure fly-proof by scattering over the heap a half mixture of cyanamid and superphosphate at the rate of one pound to two bushels of manure. Both chemicals are valuable plant foods and greatly enrich the manure at the same time they act as a potent larvicide.

GREATER USE OF GLOXINIAS

Few other bulbous ornamentals bring a finer array of beautiful foliage and flower around the year than the easily grown gloxinia. Potted from late February until early June, bulbs produce window and porch flowers all summer. Likewise a succession of indoor blooms may be enjoyed all winter by potting bulbs from late September until December.

Many beginners with this Brazilian plant are handicapped with the erroneous idea that it is temperamental and difficult to handle. On the other hand, experienced growers think of gloxinias as the easiest of all indoor bulbs to manage successfully.

Gloxinias permit propagation by bulbs, seed, and leaf layering. Sometimes plants do not come true to parent color from seed but the spectacle of various results in color and shade is interesting. Seed is small and fragile. It should be gently pressed into a soil mixture of sifted leafmold, fine peat moss, and rich loam. Glass should be fitted over the flat and ventilation practiced carefully to prevent damping-off. The flat should be fitted to allow watering from the bottom. After plants develop second leaves they should be moved to individual small pots of sandy, light potting loam, similar to that here advised for seed flats, with a layer of crushed charcoal in the bottom of each pot. Plants reach blooming size in about 8 months from date of sowing seed.

Leaves from a growing plant or from the old plant after it ceases to bloom may be utilized to start many new specimens in the same way that African violet leaves are layered. A portion of the stem should be retained on each leaf. The small plants should be moved to individual pots as soon as roots begin to form.

Plants grown in this way may later be used over and over for many years like purchased bulbs. Through these methods a grower may build up a numerous array of bulbs from the fancy named varieties as well as from worthwhile plants he finds among those from seed. Plants from leaf layering and bulbs continue to come true to parent color and type.

Most growers making inquiries about gloxinia culture ask about how the old plant should be treated after it ceases to bloom. As long as the leaves remain green the old plant should be watered and otherwise attended as it was during its pre-bloom and flowering period. At this stage it is storing strength in its bulb for the next flowering season. When the leaves begin to fade, water should be withheld and the pot (with plant undisturbed) should be stored in a medium dry basement or cellar where the temperature remains around 45 degrees F. After a rest of several weeks it may be brought out and forced into renewed growth by resumption of watering in a light location. It is this "rest" between flowerings that imparts long life to bulbs.

By starting new plants and resting old bulbs, growers may have gloxinias in full flower almost any time around the year.

Experience indicates that indoor gloxinias drop their buds mainly because of one or both of two factors—dry air or sudden chilling drafts. Of course, this trouble is rarely encountered with window and porch specimens over summer.

"Shibong" is the name of a province nominally belonging to China means "new frontier" or "new dominion."

ACHESON DENIES APPEASEMENT

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson has denied there was any "appeasement" in United States support of last January's futile move by the United Nations for a cease fire in Korea.

Acheson told the Senate's MacArthur inquiry that the State Department backed the move because "we x x x thought that the sound thing to do was to vote in favor of this resolution."

The U. N. cease fire resolution sought to arrange an armistice and submit to "an appropriate body" of U. N. members the questions of the future of Formosa and China's representation in the United Nations.

Nothing came of the move because the Chinese Reds rejected the proposal.

Senator Russell (D-Cal.) brought up the matter at the Senate hearings. He is chairman of the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations committees conducting the inquiry into the dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Russell asked Acheson for testimony about "the resolution that was supported that gave rise to charge of appeasement."

"As we interpreted it, and as we interpret now," Acheson said, "the plan would have restored conditions to their pre-Korean war status, to permit negotiation of a lasting peace."

The United States had its peak number of horses in 1915—21,430. Now there are less than 3,000,000.

LEGIONNAIRES MEET TUESDAY

A meeting of the Francis X. Elder post, American Legion No. 121, with approximately 60 members in attendance, was held Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. with William L. Topper, presiding as commander.

Philip B. Sharpe, chairman of the Honor Roll committee, gave a full report and commended the members of the committee "on their fine cooperation in making it a success." A rising vote of thanks was given to the committee and to all persons who helped with the erection of the monument and the dedicatory program. Eugene Rodgers reported that those members who wish their name to be added to the Honor Roll may have them placed on it in the near future.

Jack Rosensteel, manager of the Legion Junior Baseball team, reported that the team is progressing very favorably.

New applications for membership were accepted by the post. They were Leon B. Wright, Baltimore, a student at Mount St. Mary's college, and Oliver L. Cline, Waynesboro.

Flag Is Presented

A flag, size 5 by 9, was presented to the post by Louis F. Rosensteel from Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Kerrigan of Philadelphia. The flag, Mr. Rosensteel said, was on the casket of Mrs. Kerrigan's brother, Neil McGlaughlin, who belonged to Battery F, 115th Field Artillery, U. S. Army, who was killed overseas and who had taken part in the battle of St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne. A notation accompanied the letter, read by Mr. Rosensteel, was signed by E. Cowley, adjutant general of the U. S. Army. A rising vote of thanks and appreciation was given Mr. and Mrs. Kerrigan for donating the flag to the post. Letters of congratulations to the Honor Roll committee and the post for the success of the dedicatory program were read from Mrs. Ed. Bowers, Gold Star mother, whose son, James S. Bowers, was killed overseas, and from Mrs. Rita Felix, widow of John C. Felix, who was also killed in action.

Harold Hoke, commander of the local V.F.W., suggested that the Legion cooperate on a party to be staged outdoors in the near future. The post voted to go through with these plans.

Nominate Officers

The following board of directors was elected: Eugene Rodgers, Philip B. Sharpe, Jack Rosensteel, Lumen Norris, William Rodgers, Clarence Frailey and William L. Topper.

Nominations were held for post officers for the year 1951-1952. They were: Commander, Eugene Rodgers, Philip B. Sharpe, Robert C. Wormley, Leo G. Sanders; first vice commander, Jack Rosensteel, Richard Yeomans, Leslie Fox and Charles B. Harner; second vice commander, Sterling Hemler, Wayne McClellan, William C. Annan; chaplain, Everett Christer and Louis Rosensteel; finance officer, Allen Bouey; sergeant-at-arms, Louis Rosensteel and Andrew Shorb; and trustee, Paul Humerick.

Delegates to the state convention appointed were Dorothy Chamberlin, Francis Sanders, Curtis D. Topper, Eugene Rodgers, J. Albert Saffer, Andrew Shorb. Alternates to the convention were Louis F. Rosensteel, Allen Bouey, Guy Kessler, Lewis Kreitz and Henry Timmerman.

After the meeting, refreshments were served and music was furnished at the piano by Joseph Maculoso, a student at Mt. St. Mary's college.

DVBS TO OPEN MONDAY, JUNE 18

Emmitsburg—The organization of the Emmitsburg Daily Vacation Bible school which will open Monday, June 18, at 9:15 a.m., in the Lutheran parish house, is being completed. Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of the Lutheran church, was selected director of the school at the meeting of officers and pastors May 15. Miss Mary Long was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Lewis Bell and Mrs. John D. White was re-elected treasurer.

Since this first meeting, the following workers and teachers have been secured: Mary Long, Mary Firey, Sue Hays, Beulah Glass, Barbara Hays, Helen Eushman, Louis Keilholtz, Jean Troxell, Marjorie Crist, Grace Rowe, Ruth Umble and Mrs. Charles Fuss. Jasper L. Wantz has been selected to be the pianist for the school. The new 1951 Interdenominational Vacation Bible school graded lesson course published by the United Lutheran Church will be used in the school together with a repeat of some of the lessons used last year.

The Emmitsburg Community Bible school for all the children of the area is interchurch, non-denominational, and children of all churches and of no church are all invited and all parents are urged to send their children. The executive committee has asked parents in the outlying areas to plan among themselves for the transportation of the children from their section. This plan was followed last year and resulted in the loss of a number of children from the school but the leaders think it is the proper way to distribute responsibility and it is their hope that all parents will cooperate in arranging transportation for their children.

The school is free except for the offering received from the children during the devotions each day. No teacher or worker receives any pay for her work and the textbooks with all materials are given the children free. The school will run for two weeks, Monday through Friday, daily 9:15 to 11:15 a.m., from June 18 to June 29. There will be a public worship service in the Reformed church Sunday, June 17, at 7:30 p.m., when a sermon will be given by a guest preacher and the officers and teachers and workers of the school will be officially installed.

Emmitsburg

Emmitsburg—The afternoon of games sponsored by the Emmitsburg Home-makers club will be held on June 14 at the home of Mrs. Morris Zentz instead of at the home of Mrs. Harry Boyle as was previously announced.

Miss Anne Eckenrode, Baltimore, spent the week-end visiting with her father, Prof. B. J. Eckenrode, and Mrs. Eckenrode.

Pfc. Jack Timmerman, stationed at California, is spending a furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Timmerman. Pfc. Timmerman and his parents spent three days recently visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hodge, Philadelphia. Mrs. Hodge is the former Catherine Timmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wachter and daughters, Peggy, Nancy and Mrs. Sterling Goulden, spent the week-end in Reading, Pa., attending the wedding of Mrs. Wachter's niece.

Miss Marianne Sanders, Washington, D. C., spent the week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sanders.

Robert Gillelan, U. S. Navy, Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillelan.

Miss Nancy Reagle, Miss Dolores Miller, Miss Betty Hollinger and Miss Sue Stinson, Teachers' college, Towson, Md., spent the week-end with their respective parents.

Jack Bubrick, Union Bridge, Md., and Miss Loretta Boye, Frederick Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard H. Boyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wivell have returned to their home at North Adams, Mass., after spending a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis Topper and other relatives.

More boys and girls from the Evangelical Lutheran church than ever before have received their acceptance for attendance at Camp Nawakwa this summer. The Junior high camp opens next Monday, June 11. The following from the Lutheran will attend the various camps there this summer: Barbara and Betty Hays, Marjorie Crist, Margaret Neighbors, Susan Daugherty, George and Sue Fryer, Norman Shriver, and Louis Bollinger. The Sunday school has voted to pay the expense of one or two persons attending the Church Workers' Summer school at Camp Nawakwa from August 27 to September 2. No one has yet been selected.

250-Mission Pilot Is Returning To U. S.

Tokyo, June 7 (AP)—The father of the Korean air force is going home to the United States.

But Lt. Col. Dean E. Hess of Marietta, O., leaves a legend behind him.

The lean, shy, fighting man began his work only a few days after the Korean war began. He started with 10 F-51 Mustangs and 10 eager but shaky Korean pilots. He built the Korean air arm into an effective fighting force.

The scholarly Hess—he started out to be a history professor—personally led the Koreans into action. He has flown 253 combat missions, more than any other pilot in the Korean war.

Before his departure, Hess was called to Pusan to lunch with President Syngman Rhee. The president said farewell by giving him the order of military merit, Korea's second highest award. It previously had been reserved for generals.

"I don't wear it," Hess says with a heavy-lidded eye. "I wouldn't be able to walk."

Botanists have identified about 300,000 different species of plants.

Mrs. Carolyn E. Lower, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Cadle, Emmitsburg, who will graduate Saturday, June 9, from the University of Maryland School of Nursing. Previous to entering nurses' training she attended St. Joseph's high school and St. Joseph's college at Emmitsburg.

Marylanders like to talk!

This Company is now handling a record volume of 2,375,000 calls a day! What's more, these calls on 611,000 telephones are going through faster than at any time since prewar days. Yet expansion and improvement of telephone service throughout Maryland goes on.

The fleet's in!

In the last five years, telephone trucks and crews have been a familiar sight on the highways and byroads of rural Maryland. It is all part of the Telephone Company's program to bring more and more service to rural communities. More than 23,300 miles of open-wire circuits have been added. Since 1945, the gain in rural telephones in Maryland has been no less than 68%.

As you finish a call, please be sure you replace your telephone receiver carefully. A receiver off its cradle or hook "finishes" all service. Your telephone and all other telephones on your party line are "busy" to anyone who calls until you hang up.

The Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City.

HOUSE-PASSED TEACHER SALARY BILL IN SENATE

Harrisburg, June 7 (AP)—The House passed a $46,000,000 teacher pay boost bill today, facing an uncertain future in the Senate.

Chairman Paul L. Wagner (R-Schuylkill) of the Senate Education committee hinted Senate action on the measure would be held up until the administration's tax troubles are resolved.

House approval of the $4400 cost-of-living increase for most of Pennsylvania's nearly 60,000 school teachers came yesterday as Senate Republicans called an unprecedented caucus for next week to look into the commonwealth's fiscal picture.

The House vote was 184-10 to pass the teacher salary increase and the same on a companion measure to hike state grants to school districts to help finance the load.

Adds to Confusion
The $46,000,000 pay boost exceeds by $26,000,000 the $20,000,000 Gov. John S. Fine allocated in his $1-226,000,000 budget for increased education costs.

To add to the tax confusion, the keystone of Fine's budget is a proposal for a one-half of one per cent personal income tax to raise $119,600,000 in the next two years. And that levy has been bogged down in the Senate for nearly a month.

The Senate Republican caucus, scheduled for June 15 while the legislature is otherwise in recess next week, was summoned by caucus Chairman James S. Berger (R-Pottsville).

Berger said Fine's budget secretary, Dr. Edward B. Logan, Auditor General Weldon B. Heyburn, Revenue Secretary Otto F. Mesner and other department heads have been invited to the closed meeting.

Fine "Very Happy"
"Important pending legislation will be discussed at this caucus," said Berger in a brief statement.

Fine greeted the news of the Republican caucus with a statement that he was "very happy" about the development.

"This meeting is in line with my suggestion of May 26, at which time I said that the administration and its fiscal officers would cooperate in every way to help resolve the delay in passing tax legislation," declared the Governor.

The session, however, was interpreted as a move to seek an end to the impasse on the income levy created by the opposition of 11 Republican Senators.

Agenda Piles Up

The rebellious Senators, said one GOP Senator, who declined quotation by name, will be given a free rein in questioning state experts on budget estimate details. Some of the opposition to the income levy has revolved around the contention that Fine over-estimated expenditures and under-estimated revenue.

Meanwhile, the legislature piled up a huge agenda for action after its recess next week. After adjourning today, the lawmakers will return June 18 for a resumption of sessions that bid to be the longest since 1941 when the assembly adjourned July 15. An Eastern Star convention here next week is forcing a legislative recess because of a hotel room shortage.

Some 75 bills were cleared by House committees yesterday and about 65 by Senate units. It has been the largest day's work since the assembly convened last January.

Truck Bill Up
One of the more controversial measures released to the Senate floor was a bill to increase the legal weight limits of commonly used trucks from 45,000 pounds to 60,000 pounds.

Backed by the Pennsylvania Motor Truck association, the legislation was approved by the Senate Highways committee, heretofore a cemetery for truck weight bills.

The measure increases penalties for overloading, including new powers to require unloading on the spot and impounding of cargoes until fines are paid. Instead of the present flat $50 fine for overloading, the bill sets up a graduated scale of fines for overweight in excess of 10 per cent.

Many of the committee actions were on appropriation bills, including the $624,115,435 general appropriation measure for most of the commonwealth's expenses in the next two years.

Plans for the annual church picnic to be held in July will be discussed for the group by Mrs. Robert Myers and Mrs. Roy Knouse.

Mrs. Charles Stambaugh, North Queen street, was hostess to the Mite society of St. Paul's Lutheran church at the June meeting held on Tuesday evening. The devotional period was led by Mrs. David S. Kammerer. Routine business was conducted by the president, Mrs. Emma Norwood. The assistant secretary, Mrs. William H. Dixon, presented her report. There were seven members in attendance. The next meeting of the society will be held on Tuesday, July 3. The place of meeting will be announced later.

At a recent meeting of the church school board of St. Mary's Lutheran church, Silver Run, it was decided to hold the annual church school picnic on Saturday, July 21. The picnic will be held on the church grounds and committees for it will be appointed and announced in the near future.

MRS. MERRITT SAYS NAGGING ACHES AND PAINS LEFT HER AFTER TAKING HADACOL

HADACOL Relieves Nagging Aches and Pains
When Due to Deficiencies of Vitamins
B1, B2, Niacin and Iron

Mrs. Louise Merritt of Earling, West Virginia, suffered from nagging aches and pains, a poor appetite and a tired run-down feeling which can be caused by a lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron and the pains bothered her so that she was unable to do much house work. But let Mrs. Merritt tell you her story in her own words:

"I am 37 years old, married, and I am a housewife. Before I started taking HADACOL, I didn't have any appetite. I felt tired all the time and I suffered from nagging aches and pains, and I was unable to do much house work. Now, I am on my 4th bottle of HADACOL and I am eating well and the nagging aches and pains and tired feelings have all left me. I was also underweight before taking HADACOL. Now I have gained a few pounds. I intend to continue taking HADACOL."

Yes, now Mrs. Merritt is able to enjoy life once again.

HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the REAL CAUSE of those nagging aches and pains when due to the lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in the system. AND LISTEN TO THIS! Continued use of this great HADACOL not only gives continuous complete relief but helps keep such painful distress from returning when caused by such deficiencies. Now that's the kind of product you have been waiting for. That's the kind you should buy and start taking at once.

And HADACOL'S wonderful Vitamins and Minerals come in a special pleasant liquid form so they are quickly absorbed and assimilated in the blood, ready to go to work at once.

HADACOL IS SO EFFECTIVE
Because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every organ and to every part of your body.

Louise Merritt

You may have tried other Vitamin preparations or other Vitamin and Mineral preparations, so we make you this offer. Try a bottle of HADACOL today. You be the judge. You take no chances.

So be fair to yourself. Don't go through life suffering from nagging aches and pains when they are caused by lack of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drug store.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES

There is only one HADACOL. Don't let anyone tell you something else is "just as good." Insist on genuine HADACOL. You risk nothing because HADACOL is sold on a strict money-back guarantee. Sold at all drug stores. Trial size $1.25, but buy the large family-size, only $3.50.

"Thanks for your nice compliment, Mrs. Paul," says Mrs. Filbert. "Mrs. Filbert's Margarine is my own recipe, so I love to get letters like yours."

"Here's what other housewives write me: Cleveland, Ohio: 'Mrs. Filbert, your margarine is much sweeter and smoother than other brands.'... Brattleboro, Vt.: 'I use your margarine for all my baking; it is so wonderful!'... 'Buy my Mrs. Filbert's Margarine today. 15,000 units of Vitamin A fortify every pound.
